

REGISTRATION FORM OLFACTION REHABILITATION

General

Name: _____

Date of birth: _____

Status after: _____

_____ date _____
_____ date _____
_____ date _____

Date onset of treatment: _____

Datum end of treatment: _____

SLP: _____

Pre-operative

- Attention to olfaction during pre-operative interview
 - Sense of smell is
 - Important for the patient
 - Not important, not unimportant for the patient
 - Not important for the patient

- Personal determination of sense of smell of the patient preceding total laryngectomy
 - Good: Has always been able to smell everything.
 - Medium: Has not been able to smell as well as others, but sufficiently
 - Poor: Has not been able to smell anything, or very little, due to Olfaction grade: (very poor) 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 (very good)

- Personal determination of sense of taste of the patient preceding total laryngectomy:
 - Good: Has always been able to taste everything very well.
 - Medium: Has not always been able to taste everything, or to taste as well as others.....
 - Poor: Has been able to taste almost nothing
Taste grade: (very poor) 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 (very good)

- Odour test administered:
 - Name of test: _____
 - Date administered: _____
 - Score: _____

Post-operative

- Personal determination of sense of smell of the patient preceding total laryngectomy
 - Good: Has always been able to smell everything.
 - Medium: Has not been able to smell as well as others, but sufficiently
 - Poor: Has not been able to smell anything, or very little, due to Olfaction grade: (very poor) 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 (very good)

- Personal determination of sense of taste of the patient preceding total laryngectomy
 - Good: Has always been able to taste everything very well.
 - Medium: Has not always been able to taste everything, or to taste as well as other
 - Poor: Has been able to taste almost nothing
Taste grade: (very poor) 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 (very good)

- Odour test administered:
Name of test:
Date administered:
Score:

- Personal method of olfaction:
 - No, patient did not attempt to smell odours.
 - Yes, namely

Evaluation of treatment

- Personal determination of sense of smell of the patient preceding total laryngectomy
 - Good: Has always been able to smell everything.
 - Medium: Has not been able to smell as well as others, but sufficiently
 - Poor: Has not been able to smell anything, or very little, due to Olfaction grade: (very poor) 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 (very good)

- Personal determination of sense of taste of the patient preceding total laryngectomy
 - Good: Has always been able to taste everything very well.
 - Medium: Has not always been able to taste everything, or to taste as well as others.....
 - Poor: Has been able to taste almost nothing
Taste grade: (very poor) 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 (very good)

- Odour test administered:
Name of test:
Date administered:
Score:

Date end of treatment: